Five views of one galaxy: effective attenuation and projected mass are different quantities
Negative attenuation retained; display range clipped, numerical maps unchanged

